

2016 – 2017: Postdoctoral research Fellow

- Trained and supervised a Technician (Will Bradford) on daily basis
- Supervised a Fuller Junior research fellow from the American Cancer Society
 - For a duration of three months; Graduated from University of Connecticut

2015 – 2016: Lecturer and researcher

- Biomedical and Developmental Biology classes on both Bachelor and Master level
- Biomedical and Developmental Biology practical classes on the Bachelor and Master level
- Tutor and career counsellor
- Set up an experimental Professional Development class

To date I'm still in touch with the University and are frequently being asked to write recommendation letters in support of Students and provide a bi-annual Skype lecture on Cell polarity and Cancer.

2011 – 2015: Ph.D. training

- Trained Three Master students for their Major research rotation
 - All supervised Master students are currently enrolled in a Ph.D. program
- Mentored two Bachelor students for their Minor internship
 - Both students continued for their Master degree, one returned for a Major research rotation
- Mentored one Bachelor of applied Sciences student
 - Currently in pursue of her Master at Utrecht University
- Trained and supervised several Technicians on a daily basis
 - Currently in pursue of her Master at Utrecht University
- Supervised High-School Students in their Science Project
- Trained several short-term Bachelor students
- Involved as a practical teacher in several Developmental Biology classes
- Member of the Graduation Board Committee of the HAN University of applied sciences
- Guest Lecturer on Signal Transduction and Cell Polarity in Cancer at the HAN University of Applied Sciences